In the joint meeting of the students and faculties at the department level, it was planned to conduct November 26th as the National Constitution Day. Recommendations were included conducting quiz competition and presentations of students on various aspects of the Indian Constitution. As per this decision four topics were assigned to students. Mr. Gokul M.A., assistant professor of Department of Political Science was given the charge of quiz master. Students themselves came forward to prepare a brochure for the programme to post and share in social media and for the general publicity. Decided to open the registration for all the students of the college. And a subcommittee of students took the charge of inviting faculties and students of other departments. Albin and Shahana Sherin KS were chosen for comparing the programme

With the blessings of chief guest the programme started at 1.40 pm. There were 41 registered participants in total. Ms. Akhila Balagopalan welcomed all the participants. Principal Dr. Maria Martin Joseph inaugurated the function. Dr. Joseph K Job, Head of the Department of Malayalam and Dr. Rakesh Kalia, Head of the Department of Hindi were attended the function and delivered felicitations. Representing IQAC, Lisba extended technical support in the absence of IQAC coordinator.

After the formal inaugural session on the following aspects students presented papers.

1. Evolution of Indian Constitution - Anusree Jayachandran & Arshida PK
2. Indian Constitution and Democracy - Dilna Hashly & Krishnapriya
3. Uniqueness of Indian Constitution - Mubeera & Dawn Toms
4. Contemporary Relevance of Indian Constitution - Nidha Nihala & Mubashira Mol

Discussion on the presentation was initiated by Dr. Joseph K Job. Students shared their views and the session was found fruitful with immense participation of students.

This was followed by Quiz competition. A team consisted of 2 students from eight departments participated in the event. The session was led by Mr. Gokul. Questions were predominantly based on Constitution and Current Affairs. After the five rounds department of Functional English, Zoology and Mathematics won the first, second and third place respectively. Rakesh sir
